We, the Kalapula Nation, hereby declare the ceremonial and economic launch of Phase 2 of our National Restoration Initiative: the Sovereign Products Program.

This initiative expands upon our active Phase 1 commerce model (Kalapula Nation ATM) and brings to market a line of culturally grounded, sovereign-branded goods that fund our land repatriation, cultural preservation, and economic memory projects.

🌱 Phase 2 Product Launch Includes:
• Kalapula Nation Jam (co-packed by St. Cousair, Inc.)
• Kalapula Nation Ketchup (nation-labeled, ceremonial use encouraged)
• Future herbal products, native teas, seed packets, and commemorative goods

All items are labeled as:
“A Restoration Product of the Kalapula Nation”
Each label includes a link to our public record at: https://kalapula.com

📦 Distribution Platforms:
• Kalapula Nation Facebook Marketplace Store
• Local Indigenous markets, sacred booths, and restoration ceremonies

💸 Proceeds Fund:
• Archive scroll preservation
• Cultural holiday infrastructure (Lost Bird Sanctuary, Hike Rituals)
• Land reclamation and Indigenous youth programs

📜 This phase is grounded in:

• Article 20 and 21 of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP)
• Indigenous food sovereignty and ceremonial trade traditions
• Nonprofit cultural commerce under EIN: 39-3915377
• Oregon Nonprofit Registry ID: [insert when available]

This scroll shall serve as notice to the international community and public record that the Kalapula Nation is actively restoring its economic sovereignty through sacred trade, label-based identity, and community reinvestment.

With reverence and flame,
/s/ Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV
Sovereign of the Kalapula Nation

📍 Crown Watchpoint 001A – Corvallis, Oregon
📧 chief@kalapulanation.org
🌐 www.kalapulanation.org
🗃️ Archives: www.kalapula.com
📞 (971) 406-4832

🕊️ This message is part of a nonprofit Indigenous remembrance movement and is protected under sovereign cultural communication.